

FACE THE STATE SECOND QUARTER 2010

4/4 Local Fill Program. Face the State did not air.

4/11 KPAX Host: Angela Marshall
Guest: Zachary Brown, Melissa Hayes

In December, politicians, business leaders and environmental experts attended the Climate Change Conference in Copenhagen, Denmark. For almost two weeks, the delegates tried to hammer out a deal to cut carbon emissions, which would replace the Kyoto protocol that expires in 20-12. Of the thousands of people from across the world who took part in the conference were three Environmental Studies students from the University of Montana. Two students, Zachary Brown and Melissa Hayes, will join us on Face the State and share their overseas experiences.

4/18 KRTV Host: Kay Rossi
Guests: Glacier County Sheriff Wayne Dusterhoff
Flathead County Commissioner Joe Brenneiman

This week's show was on Interoperability Montana, a plan to connect emergency service providers from counties across the state.

The plan aims to increase radio communication between law enforcement and local government, connecting counties across Montana.

They spoke about the cost of the project as well as its current status and future expansion.

Formatted: Font: (Default) Arial, 10 pt, Font color: Black

4/25 KTVQ Host: Jay Kohn
Guest: James P. Owen - author, founder Center for Cowboy
Ethics & Leadership www.cowboyethics.org

Subject: What Wall Street can learn from the Code of the West. Owen is here to speak to the National Assoc. of Insurance and Financial Advisors of Montana. His book cowboy ethics features photography by David R. Stoecklein, Ketchum, Idaho Stoecklein Publishing & Photography.

5/2 KBZK Host: Dan Boyce
Guest: Jason Carls

We played a mini-documentary produced by the Institute for Public Strategies in Bozeman. The title is, "Underage and over the limit." It focuses on the problem of teen drinking across Montana. Afterward alcohol abuse prevention coordinators from MSU spoke with us about social host laws beginning to be passed in Montana communities. Any person who hosts a party that involves underage drinking will be held liable and cited by law. We talked about the ability of such laws to control teen drinking and whether such laws drive teens to other venues. Also discussed was the wisdom of parents hosting teen drinking parties as a way to control the situation. The experts agree this is not a good idea because such parties often get out of control and it promotes the idea of underage drinking, forming a drinking pattern that will be repeated outside the home.

5/9 KPAX Host: Russ Thomas
Guest: Fran Albrecht, Director Watson's Children Shelter

Established in 1977, Watson Children's Shelter provides a safe transitional home for children, from infant to age 14 who are victims of abuse or neglect or some sort of tragedy. The shelter serves children from all over the western Montana. Children stay at the shelter until more permanent arrangements can be made for them.

5/16 KRTV INTERVIEWER: Fred Pfeiffer
GUEST(S) & TITLE(S): Rob Quist, Mission Mountain Wood Band, Kalispell, MT

SUMMARY/TOPIC (QUESTIONS ASKED):

A full history of Rob Quist starting the Mission Mountain Wood Band in the late 60's.

Why was the band so popular nationwide?

Where was your first big performance ?

How did the plane crash that took the life of one member affect you and the others?

Why was the group re-united?

When & where you will be playing in Montana?

COMMUNITY NEEDS ADDRESSED:

History of the decades old popular band performing for various fund raising events over the years.

The re-united Mission Mountain Wood Band will perform June 25 in Great Falls as part of the Lewis & Clark Interpretive Association to support its educational programs.

The appearance part of the three day Lewis & Clark Festival in Great Falls.

How being raised in Cut Bank, Montana influenced his music writing and songs.

Quist's role of being an ambassador for the state of Montana through his music.

The importance of good music education programs in the Montana school systems.

5/23 KTVQ Host: Jay Kohn
Guests: Steve Arveschoug / Big Sky Economic Development
Authority Evan Barrett, Chief Business Officer / State of Montana

Topic: Montana Economic Development Our guests talked about economic development opportunities in Montana. Steve focused specifically on Billings, Evan gave a more state-wide perspective. Projects discussed were the Otter Creek Coal leases in eastern Montana, the XL Keystone Pipeline, the downtown federal courthouse in Billings, and the current state of the Montana economy. Steve pointed out that Billings recently was rated as number one city to launch a business.

5/30 KBZK Host: Dan Boyce
Guest: Col. Michael Tooley- Montana Highway Patrol

Montana Department of Transportation has made additional monies available to state, county and local law enforcement entities to help bolster their patrols. MDOT has increased awareness of seat belt laws through the Click It or Ticket campaign. The additional patrols will enable local law enforcement agencies to better enforce the seat belt laws and impaired driving laws.

6/6 KPAX Host:
Guests: Mark Finney and Colin Hardy Missoula Fire Sciences Lab

This week during "Face the State," Mark Finney and Colin Hardy of the Missoula Fire Sciences Lab will be analyzing the 1910 Forest Fire. Information about this forest fire is scarce because it occurred 100 years ago when there were no airplanes mapping the burn areas of the fire. So, Mark Finney will give us his predictions as to what may have lead to the massive blow-up. He will share with us the tools that he used to develop this information. Both Mark Finney and Colin Hardy will tell our viewers what, if any, forest fires have developed since that resemble the Great Fire of 1910. Then, they will discuss how firefighting practices and techniques have changed due as a result of the 1910 Forest Fire. They will talk about any upcoming events they will be participating in that pertain to the 100 year anniversary of the 1910 Forest Fire.

6/13 KRTV Host: Tim McGonigal
Guest: James Parker Shield, Director of War Shield Development

Tim McGonigal interviewed James Parker Shield of War Shield Development and a member of the Little Shell Indian tribe. They discussed employment and training; education; government relations; housing; economic development; and healthcare. These were the key issues facing Montana's urban Indian population identified at recent roundtable sessions in Great Falls and Helena. They also discussed the status of the federal recognition process for the Little Shell tribe.

6/20 KTVQ

6/27 Montana Broadcasters Congressional Debate featuring Dennis McDonald and Congressman Denny Reberg.